Dr. Hackett To Attend Conference

Dr. Donald F. Hackett, chairman of the Georgia Teachers College Arts division, has been invited by President Dwight D. Eisenhower to attend the President's 10th Annual Conference on Occupational Safety, to be held in Washington, D. C., March 25-27, 1958.

Around the theme, "Safety Con-serves Manpower, Manpower Builds the Future," the conference will consider methods of safeguarding our changing labor force against the emerging technological hazards of the Space Age.

The next decade will face a relative shortage of men in the prime working ages and great increases in older and younger workers and women.

To the well-known hazards will be added those resulting from wider uses of nuclear energy, new chemicals, and space flight both in research and in production. Commemorating its tenth anniversary, this conference will assess past progress and problems as guides to the safety challenge of the future.

Great progress has been made in safety over the past generation but there were still 14,300 deaths and nearly 2 million injuries caused by on-the-job accidents in 1956.

The President will greet the expected 3,000 to 4,000 delegates and Secretary of Labor James P. Mitchell will address them as will other leading figures of industry and labor. Speakers and workshops will deal several very important aspects of the safety problem.

The cooperating groups in the conference are represented by American business leaders, both large and small, labor, Federal, State and local governments, insurance, education, private safety organizations, and others.

For the first time in 1958, two important industrial segments, mining and transportation, will be welcomed to conference deliberations.

Leaders from the cooperating areas are brought together, on a non-partisan basis, to devise sound methods of reducing occupational deaths and injuries to American workers.

Members of 26 campus organizations contributed to the drive. The Physical Education Club won the fifteen-dollar first prize, since it claimed the greatest number of contributors.

The Student Council, Baptist Student Union, and Veterans Club tied for second place, and each club will receive $5.00.

More Profits From Less Acreage

By Roy Powell, County Agent

More profits from fewer acres is a problem facing most farmers today. Continued emphasis is being placed on controlled production of several crops.

Proper use of fertilizer and lime can play an important role in maintaining or increasing profits in a controlled crop economy. Acreage of crops can be reduced, but by improved fertilizer practices, the unit cost of production can be decreased and net profit increased.

To illustrate this point, assume a farmer needed 1,000 bushels of corn to feed his livestock or to sell. If his average production was 25 bushels per acre, it would require 38.5 acres to grow the 1000 bushels and very little or no profit would be obtained.

But if adequate mixed fertilizer and lime and other good cultural practices were used and he applied 40 pounds of actual nitrogen per acre, he would increase his corn yield to 54 bushels per acre. Then, it would require only 18.5 acres to produce 1000 bushels of corn, and based on research results, he would make about $668.00 total profit. If nitrogen application was increased to 80 pounds per acre, it would take even less acres, only 13.5, to produce 1000 bushels of corn because the average yield would be 74 bushels per acre.

If it were desired to maintain the same profit as was obtained at the 54-bushel yield level but with practices to give 74 bushels per acre, only 9.8 acres would be required and the total production would be only 725 bushels. This illustrates how profits can be maintained but still reduce production.

Fertilizer and lime, used properly, can help ease the price-squeeze and provide more profits from fewer acres.

County Agent Roy Powell says "For maximum efficiency of fertilizers used and for a balanced supply to growing crops, Bulloch County farmers should use the correct fertilizer ratio based on soil test. The only intelligent way to determine fertilizer and lime needs for a particular farm field is to have a soil test made."

Mr. Powell states that according to research information only three basic fertilizer ratios are needed to correct any soil fertility condition in Bulloch County. They are: (1) Even phosphate - even potash fertilizer ratio such as a 4-12-12 or 0-12-12. Soil test information indicates that 42 percent of the fertilizer used in Bulloch County should be of this ratio. (2) High Phosphate - low potash such as 5-10-5. Approximately 5 percent of the fertilizer used should be of this ratio, and (3) Low phosphate - high potash such as 5-10-5 or 0-10-20. Soil test information indicates that 53 percent of the fertilizers used in Bulloch County should be of this ratio.

For the correct fertilizer ratio to use on a particular farm, have a soil test made, says County Agent Powell. "Don't guess - test."

ON HOUSE COUNCILS

Miss Kay McCormick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. McCormick of Brooklet, Miss Patricia Redding, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Redding of Statesboro, Miss Glenda Banks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Osborne C. Banks of Statesboro and Miss Ann Bowen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. B. ## Construction At G. T. C. To Start Soon

Construction on Georgia Teachers College's new Student Center-Dining Hall is expected to start on or about March 1st of this year according to an announcement this week by GTC President Zach S. Henderson.

The Board of Regents met in Atlanta Wednesday and gave final approval to several deletions and changes made necessary when the original bid exceeded the appropriation by $107,000.

Deletions totalling $42,000 were made, and the rest of the difference was made up with the college furnishing $25,000 and the Regents authorizing up to $50,000.

This makes the building cost approximately $615,000 with the Regents authorizing up to $400,000, Georgia Teachers College $175,000, and the State Board of Education $40,000 for a film library addition to the building.

The changes in building plans followed a conference among Dr. Henderson; Hubert Dewberry, the Board of Regents' Director of Plant and Business Operations; the contractor, Clarence Mobley Construction Co., of Augusta, and the architect, Logan and Williams of Atlanta.

Besides the student center, the new building will house the dining hall, post office, snack bar, book store, office space for student publications, student conference rooms, private dining rooms, game rooms, and the state Regional Film library of the Department of Education.

Cong. Preston Criticizes Soil Bank

Representative Prince H. Preston lambasted Secretary of Agriculture Benson and his assistants in charge of the Soil Bank when he issued the following statement from his Washington office.

"Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Taft Benson and his assistants have handled the Soil Bank pro-

The following telegram was received by the Bulloch Times last Tuesday from Hon. Prince Preston, congressman from the First District:

"Please advise farmers through your columns that I predict that the committee on appropriations on which I serve will appropriate $175,000,000 additional funds this Thursday to take care of all soil bank applications."

gram for 1958 in a shameful manner. The confusing manner in which they have announced the sign-up period and the abrupt closing of application taking after only a few days of signing has brought about chaos and bitter criticism by farmers. Having farmers, many of whom were elderly men and women, standing in line puts them in the role of mendicants. In some states violence and fighting has erupted as men sought places in the ever growing waiting lines. It was a grievous mistake to announce a first come first served plan of operation after it was discovered that funds would be inadequate to meet the demands. To solve this serious dilemma which the Department of Agriculture has shown little disposition to straighten out, I have today proposed to the heads of the Soil Bank program in Washington that they immediately request Congress to appropriate adequate funds to permit all farmers to sign up who wish to do so. In the event they fail to do this, then I am suggesting that allocate unused wheat funds to the cotton program and then pay all farmers who wish to sign up on a percentage basis, thus giving all farmers fair and equitable treatment. I am making known to the responsible officials in the Department of Agriculture the resentment expressed to me by farmers in my District at the shabby way this program has been handled. The blame lies on the officials in Washington and not on our local committees. The Community ASC Committees can act only upon authority from Washington.

GUEST SPEAKER SUNDAY

The Immanuel Baptist Church will have as guest speaker on Thursday night, Feb. 20, Rev. Damon Woods, missionary to the Philippines.

C. of 1958" was held in McCran Auditorium during homecoming week end at the college and was a part of the festivities for the 50th anniversary celebration.

Band Clinic This Week At G. T. C.

Two hundred and twenty members of high school bands from District 1 are expected to participate in a music clinic here this week at G. T. C.

Some 120 members will make a Class A band and 100 are expected to make up the Class B band. Two directors from outside the district will direct the Class B section and a well known clinician will direct the Class A band. Both of the bands will practice on Thursday and Friday of this week.

It is the purpose of this clinic to give band members the experience of working with musicians from other groups and to sight read music which they do not ordinarily use in their own schools. The directors and clinician will serve as instructors so that the participating members can become better musicians in their own school bands.

The public is invited to attend the concert, to be given by both groups on Friday night, February 21 in the McCran Auditorium at G. T. C. The program will begin at 8:00 p. m.

They're Coming In Strong!

The mails this month have brought good word from so many of our subscriber friends. "Extend my subscription. This will pay me up for another two years. Don't let me miss a single copy. Please find $3.09 enclosed. Thanks for reminding me," and many, many others who have down through the years stood faithful and loyal to the Bulloch Times. For all of these good folk and for the kind things that many of them had to say, we are indeed grateful.

Though the financial ends of any business must be taken care of and especially during these times of high costs of operation, it is these little personal notes that we so often receive that sort of make our days a little more bright. For them and for those who send them we want to say "thank you."

Local Area In Winters Firm Grip

With the weather setting unusual records throughout the nation, the Statesboro area is not left out of the picture as the extreme cold weather and snow continues to grip the area. Early last Tuesday morning, February 11th, approximately one-half inch of snow fell and it was followed by near one inch on Thursday morning.

Many children saw snow for the first time. Snow ball battles, snow men made by children and adults were much in evidence throughout the city.

"Old Timers" said they were reminded of other snow falls in the past. There was a "big snow" on February 25, 1914, when three or four inches covered the ground. Some said that there was another snowfall of importance in 1928 but was not found in records that are available. The last heavy snow fall was reported to be three to four inches on Wednesday, December 15, 1943, according to the account in the Bulloch Times.

According to weather bureau records January 1958 was 55 per cent colder than normal. January 1958 was 75 per cent colder than January 1957 and January 1958 was the second coldest January on record.

CHANGE IN GEORGIA SONG APPROVED

The house of representatives passed a bill for a slight change in the official state song, "Georgia," as suggested by Mrs. E. L. Barnes. The bill was introduced by Representatives Frances Allen and Wiley Fordham of Bulloch County, and Colbert Hawkins of Savannah.

Mrs. Barnes and Dr. Jack Averitt sang the song for the legislators so they could hear the proposed change, which change was unanimously adopted. A group of women from the Forest Park Baptist Church sang a capella. They also gave a very impressive rendition of the song in the senate. It is expected that the bill will be passed by the senate and signed by the governor this week.

This is the song which appears on the pamphlet distributed by the state bearing the flag, official flower and the bird of Georgia.
